

BETWEEN THE RIVER AND THE MOUNTAINS:
A HISTORY OF EARLY SETTLEMENT
IN SIERRA COUNTY, NEW MEXICO.

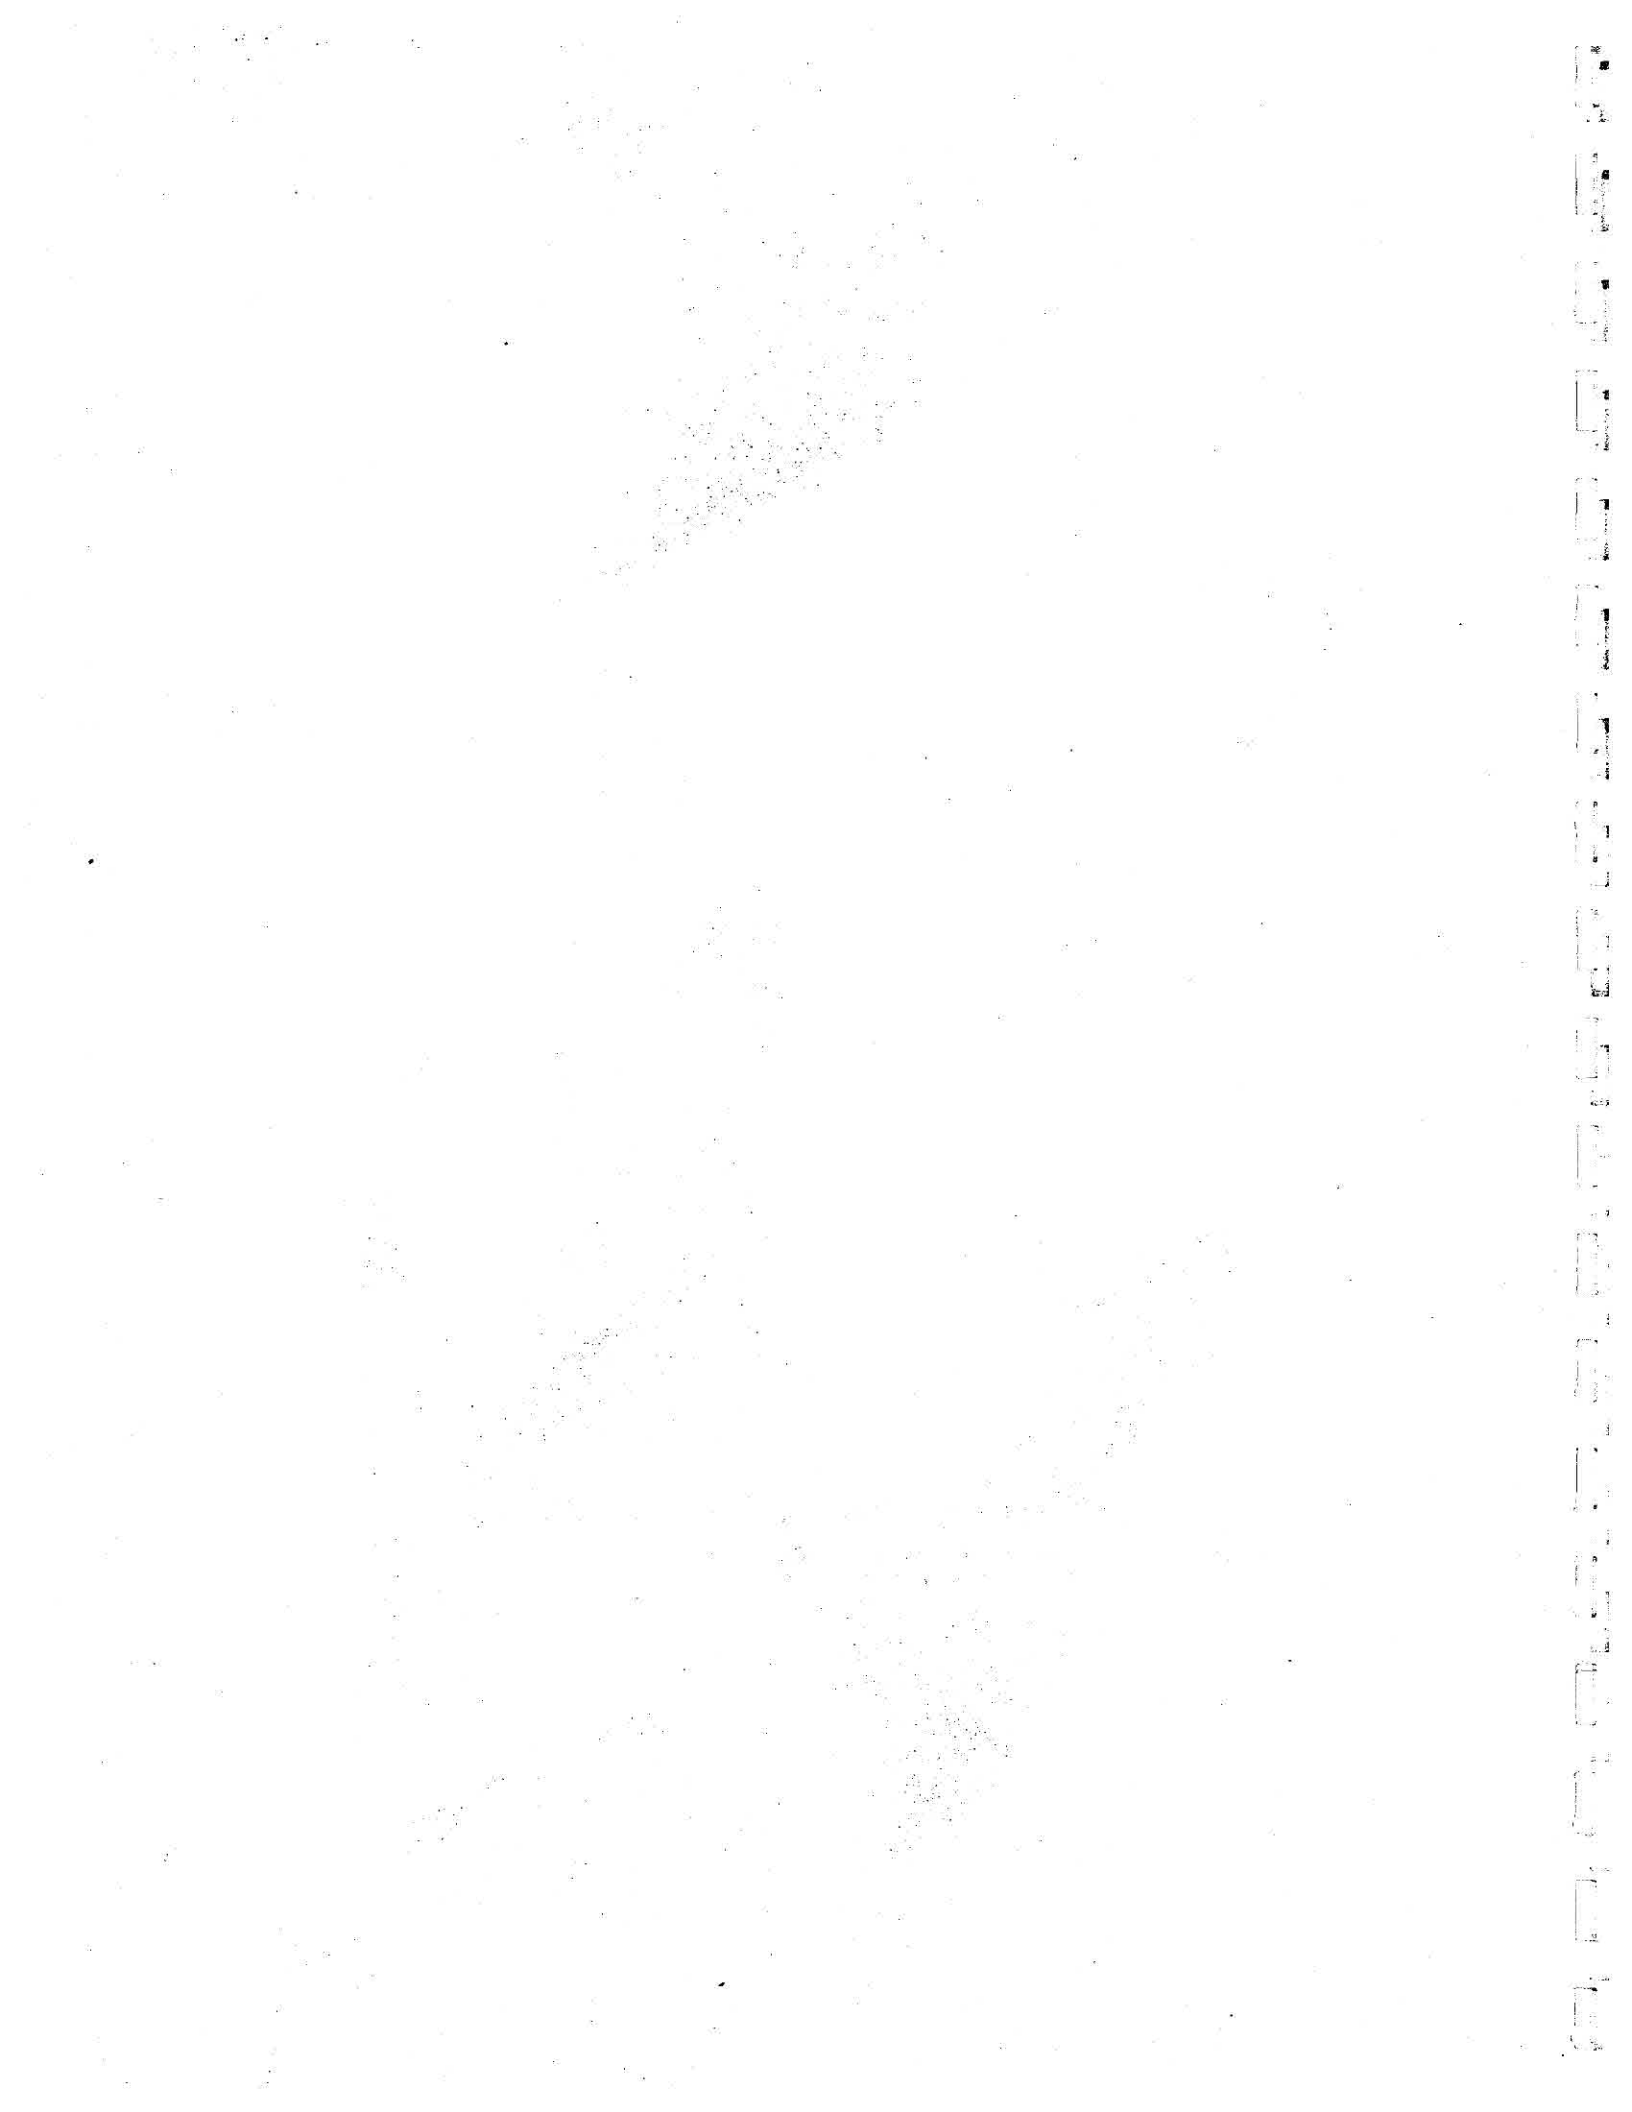

John P. Wilson

Las Cruces, New Mexico

Copyright 1985 John P. Wilson

August 1985

Report No. 40

CONTENTS

	Page
INTRODUCTION	1
THE EARLIEST SETTLERS OF SIERRA COUNTY	5
Apaches in Western Sierra County: Spanish and Mexican Periods	6
Apaches in Western Sierra County: The Early American Period	9
Apache Subsistence and Michael Steck's Apache Farms	10
The Decline of Apache Agriculture	19
Apache Settlement: An Interpretive History	23
Archeological Implications of Apache Settlement	26
THE EARLY COMMUNITIES OF THE RIO GRANDE VALLEY, 1859+	31
San Ygnacio de la Alamosa	33
A Transition in Time and Place: Alamosa to Cañada Alamosa	41
Alamocita	46
San José and San Albino	49
Zapata or San Ignacio	53
Cuchillo	54
Las Palomas	60
Fort McRae	73
IRRIGATION AGRICULTURE IN EARLY SIERRA COUNTY	78
CONCLUSIONS	97
ENDNOTES	103
REFERENCES	116
APPENDIX	129
Document 1: Report of Capt. George McLane, 1860	131
Documents 2, 3, 4: Newspaper accounts of the skirmish at Alamosa, 1861	135
Document 5: Petition, (Cañada) Alamosa, 1866	140
Document 6: Petition, Rio Palomas, 1867	142
Document 7: Irrigating in New Mexico, 1868	145
Document 8: Land location, Plaza de San José, 1874	148

ILLUSTRATIONS

		Page
1	"Map of Routes from Fort Craig to Copper Mines", by Bvt. Capt. Jno. P. Hatch, R.M.R., April 1859.	Opp. 1
2	"A Map of the Country Inhabited by the Gila and Mimbres Apache Indians", 1855.	15
3	"Diagram of Southern Apache Indian Reservation", 1875.	27
4	Alamocita and site of San Ygnacio de la Alamosa, 1908.	39
5	San José and San Albino, 1908.	51
6	Map of Las Palomas Valley and Vicinity, from Rio Grande Republican , January 5, 1884.	61
7	Township Plat Maps, showing village of Rio Palomas (Las Palomas) and its fields, December 1867.	63
8	Las Palomas Townsite, September 1938.	71
9	Plat of Military Reservation and plan of Fort McRae, N.M., April 1869.	75
10	Irrigation Systems on Alamosa, Cuchillo Negro, Palomas, Seco, Las Animas and Percha Creeks, 1940.	87
11	Palomas Creek Valley, looking up the valley from near the village of Las Palomas, June 28, 1939.	94
12	Village of Las Palomas, looking north-northeast. Rio Grande Valley in background cleared of brush and trees. Palomas Creek is in lower right foreground. June 28, 1939.	95

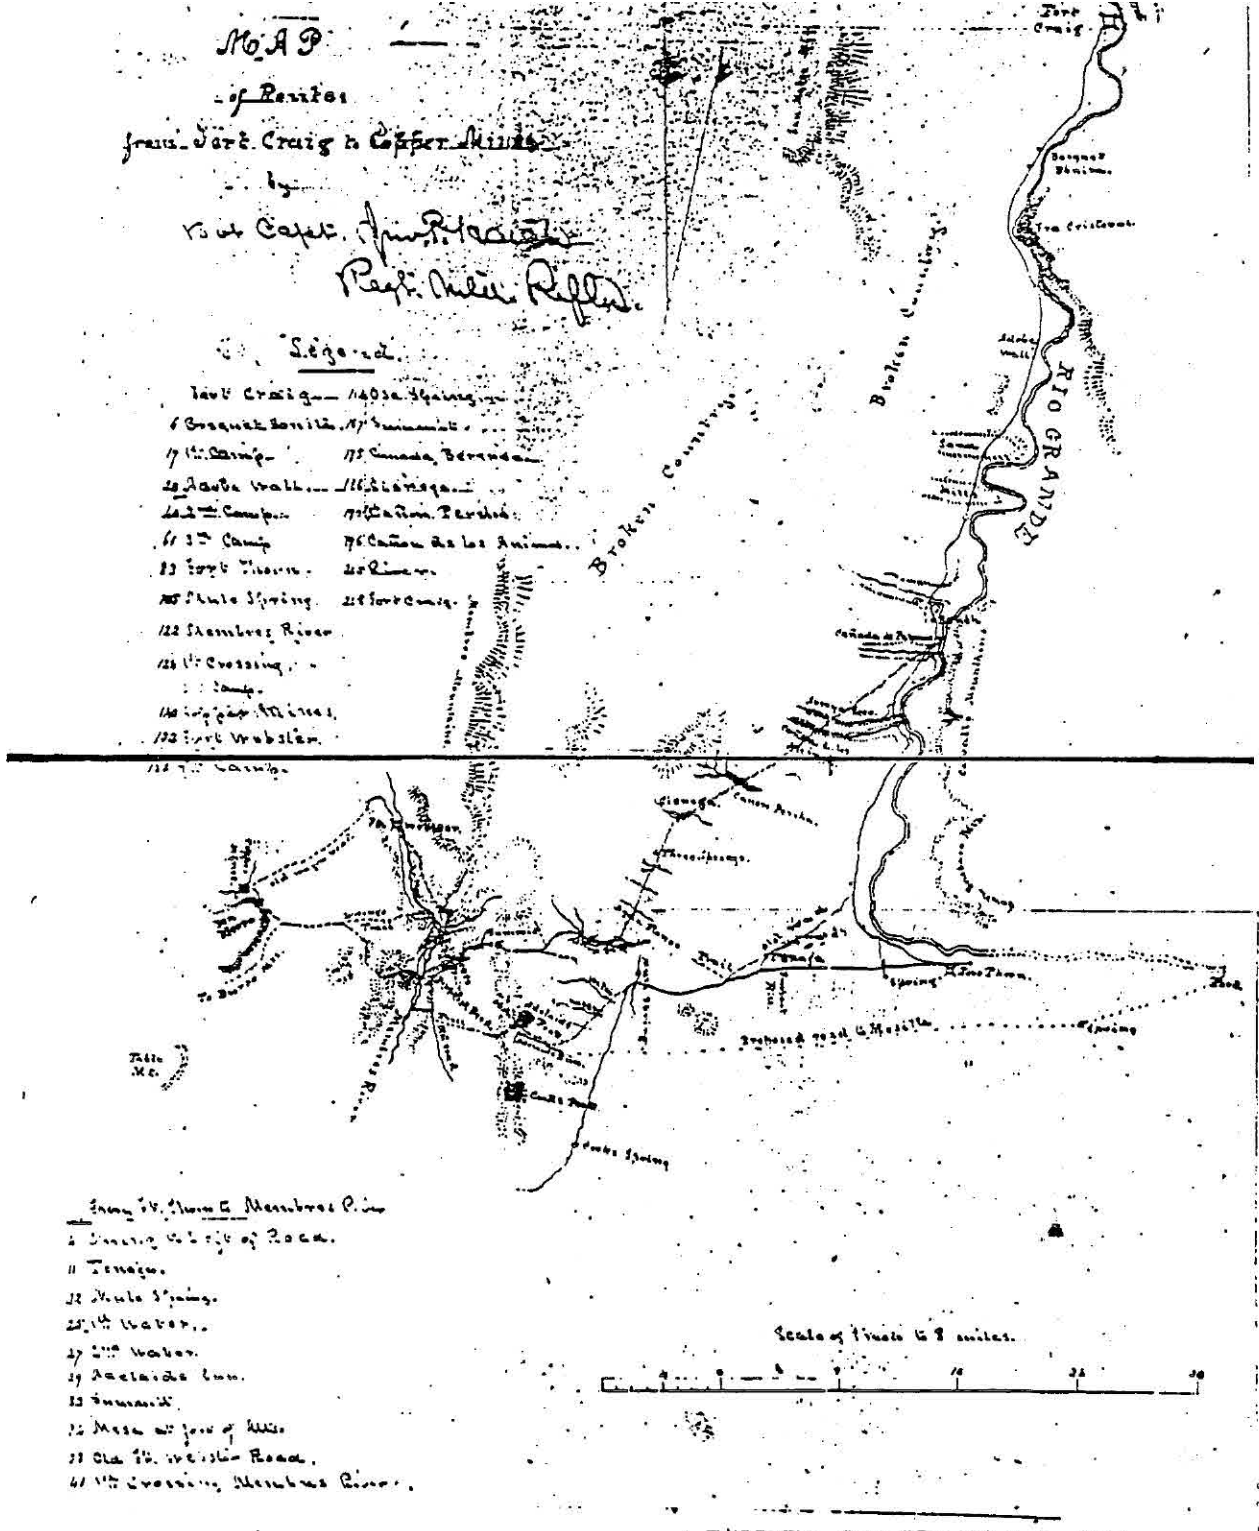

TABLES

1	Existing Irrigation Facilities (1940)	84
2	Abandoned Irrigation Facilities (1940)	85

No. 19
 of Routes
 from Fort Craig to Copper Mines
 by
 Bvt. Capt. Jno. P. Hatch
 Regt. Minn. Rifles.

Legends

- Fort Craig - 14000 Springs
 6 Bousquet South of Summit
 7 1st Camp - 11 Canada, Berend
 12 Double Water - 116 Sionega
 13 2nd Camp - 117 Cañon Verde
 14 3rd Camp - 118 Cañon de las Animas
 15 Fort Thomas - 119 River
 16 Plate Spring - 120 Lower Cañon
 122 Steamboat River
 123 1st Crossing
 124 2nd Crossing
 125 3rd Crossing
 126 4th Crossing
 127 5th Crossing

- From Ft. Union to Member's River
 1 Crossing at top of Rock
 2 Trench
 3 Mule Spring
 4 1st Water
 5 2nd Water
 6 Cañon de las Animas
 7 Summit
 8 Mesa at foot of Mt.
 9 Old Ft. Union Road
 10 1st Crossing Member's River

Fig. 1. "Map of Routes from Fort Craig to Copper Mines", by Bvt. Capt. Jno. P. Hatch, R.M.R., April 1859. Map accompanies report of April 28, 1859, Hatch to Post Adjutant, Fort Craig, National Archives, RG 393; M1120, Roll 9, File mark H-18.

