MIMBRES MESSENGER

Local School is now known as SAAAAAN Lorenzo Elementary School
Fourth Year in a row to receive an A rating

At the end of August, a very special guest, New Mexico Secretary of Education, Christopher Ruszkowski, paid a visit to the San Lorenzo Elementary School as part of the "New Mexico True Straight-A Express" tour to Grant County to celebrate the school's achievement.

Associate Superintendent in charge of Curriculum, Dr. Jose Carrillo; NM Secretary of Education, Christopher Ruszkowski; and Principal Michael Koury

After a few stops in Silver City, Secretary Ruszkowski was met at San Lorenzo Elementary School by Principal, Michael Koury, education administrators, staff, and the press. Everyone took a tour of the school and the classrooms and then a school-wide celebration was held in the gymnasium. Mr. Ruszkowski sat in on some of the classroom lessons and got a first-hand view of the excellent techniques used by the teachers.

As Mr. Ruszkowski and the district and school administrators were waiting to enter Mrs. Ross' classroom, one of the students looked out and pointed to Mr. Ruszkowski and said "Hey, he looks famous"!

No doubt he did look familiar because he had been at the school one year ago to present San Lorenzo students with their third "A" rating in a row. This year he was there to celebrate San Lorenzo's fourth consecutive "A" rating.

Of the 843 schools in New Mexico, only 32 have earned an "A" rating four years in a row. Of these 32 schools, only 13 are elementary schools. That is the top 3% of all schools. And one of them is right here in our own little community.

During the school-wide celebration, Secretary Ruszkowski said "This is a very special school. This is a

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

By Anna Willhite

This month we again celebrate the fantastic achievements of our outstanding San Lorenzo Elementary School faculty and students. For the fourth consecutive year, the school has achieved an "A" rating by the New Mexico Public Education Department. We are so very proud of our local school and the dedicated principal, faculty and students who make our local school an AAAA institution of learning.

As I write this, the Harvest Festival is still in the future, and will have taken place when you read this. All indications are that this year's Harvest Festival will have been one of the best and, hopefully, well attended and enjoyed by all. Look for a recap of the event in next month's Messenger.

October is traditionally considered the beginning of fall, although this year, it seems that it will be difficult to make that distinction by reference to the calendar alone. Weather having been weird and inconsistent the past few months has given new meaning to weather forecasting. We will just have to wait and see what comes with October. We can count on Columbus Day, Halloween and other "standard" holidays to appear as expected.

Our hordes of hummingbirds have begun to diminish markedly already. Maybe the traditional October 1st end of migration will actually be on time this year. I always hate to see them go.

All manner of interesting historical events have occurred in October: France gifted the US with the Statue of Liberty – 1886; the Erie Canal opened – 1825; the Revolutionary War ended – 1781; the World Series was broadcast on radio for the first time – 1921; Thomas Edison showed the first motion picture – 1889; the Cuban Missile Crisis began – 1962; Disney World opened in Orlando, FL – 1971; US Department of Transportation created – 1966; Al Capone was convicted of income tax evasion – 1931; the United Nations came into existence – 1945; the NY Stock Exchange crashed, the beginning of the Great Depression – 1929; and the Peanuts comic strip by Charles Schultz first appeared in newspapers – 1950. There were many more, but these will give you the idea.

Several Presidents were born in October:

- | | |
|------------------|----------------------------|
| 2 nd | James Carter, 1924 |
| 4 th | Rutherford B. Hayes, 1822 |
| 5 th | Chester A. Arthur, 1830 |
| 13 th | Dwight D. Eisenhower, 1890 |
| 27 th | Theodore Roosevelt, 1858 |
| 30 th | John Adams, 1735 |

Enough statistics, I won't depress you by listing October deaths of the famous and infamous.

HAPPY HALLOWEEN!

school I talk about all over New Mexico. I live in Santa Fe and I go to Albuquerque, Farmington, Taos and Las Cruces. Everywhere I go, I talk about San Lorenzo. The secret success to earning four 'A' grades in a row is having a really great principal." For the teachers that work here, they are not teaching based on a book, set curriculum, how old a student is or what grade they are supposed to be in. "You meet every kid where they are. We talk a lot about that in Santa Fe and education."

At the end of the celebration, a new banner was unfurled and the students all formed an A.

San Lorenzo had a "D" rating in 2012, a "C" rating in 2013, and moved up to a "B" rating in 2014. In 2015, Mr. Michael Koury became the principal and since then it has been straight "A's" for the past four years!

Don't think when you have earned on "A" you just keep doing what you are doing and retain that "A" rating—not so. Every year you have to improve over the past year to earn another A rating. In other words, it gets harder and harder to maintain an "A" rating. As Secretary Roszkowski pointed out, "It's harder to earn an A this year than it was five years ago. It is harder to earn an A this year than two years ago. We keep raising the bar." He warned principal and staff, "it will keep getting harder."

We know San Lorenzo is up to the challenge. This is no fluke. Everyone worked very hard to earn this special achievement, principal Koury, teachers, staff, volunteers and especially the STUDENTS!

Everyone at SAAAAAN Lorenzo works together to make this school a success. Whatever needs to be done gets done.

Mrs. Blanca Carpenter, Mrs. Diane Alcorta, and Ms. Yolanda Manzano preparing a special treat for everyone at the celebration.

Congratulations to everyone associated with the school. You make our community very proud .

San Lorenzo Students Visit the Mimbres Culture Heritage Site

By Marilyn Markel

Teacher Pat Ross and her 3rd and 4th graders spent a day of education and fun at MCHS. Volunteers from MCHS and the Grant County Archaeological Society joined students from Aldo Leopold Charter School to teach the San Lorenzo students about the ancient Mimbrenño Indians, Apache Indians, and homesteaders that once lived in the Mimbres Valley. The students split up into two groups and rotated to museum and outdoor classrooms.

They listened to presentations about the Mattocks Ruin Archaeological Site, Mimbres pottery, and the people that built and lived in the historic houses. The Students participated in hands-on activities such as making a pot out of clay, grinding corn using a metate and mano, drilling a hole using a pump drill, using a stone tool to make yucca fiber, and how to "call in the rain" with a lightning stick or bullroarer. Students learned about pithouse and pueblo dwellings, and shade structures known as ramadas. At the Mattocks Ruin, they first flagged then sketched artifacts, carefully leaving potsherds and stone tool fragments where they discovered them.

The kids hiked downhill to the river to eat lunch and, while enjoying the sights and sounds of the water and riparian ecosystem, learned about the endangered fish and frog species that make their home in the Rio Mimbres. The field trip was partially funded by a grant awarded to MCHS by the Grant County Community Foundation.

Lemonade Sales To Help San Lorenzo Students

The Crumbley girls, Dezia, San Lorenzo Elementary first grader, and her sister Alice, age four and a half, are learning about the lemonade business and helping others.

The two young Mimbres entrepreneurs sold their tart, tasty drinks at the recent Fort Bayard Birthday Celebration. The girls decided that proceeds from their lemonade stand will be used to buy school supplies for San Lorenzo students. We wish them success in future endeavors!

ROUNDUP LODGE NOTES

Fall traditionally begins the busy season at the Roundup Lodge – holiday parties and gatherings and holiday-related Booster Club events are already being organized.

The Mimbres Booster Club is holding a Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, December 1st at the Lodge. This is the annual local showcase for artisans and creative folks to display and sell their works, and offers an opportunity to do holiday shopping locally while supporting our local artists and artisans. There will be a bake sale and fun for all.

Vendors can reserve a table at the Bazaar beginning now. The cost is $10. Call Charlene at 575-574-8823 to reserve a table. Items offered for sale must be new (this is not a swap meet!) and not manufactured items for resale.

The October Boosters Club meeting will be Thursday, October 4th, pot luck at 5:30 followed by a business meeting. Everyone welcome.

October Bingo will be held on Sunday, October 14th from 2:00 pm to 5:00 pm, always a fun way to spend a Sunday afternoon with a congenial group and to enjoy various prizes and varied games. Three cards for $10 and a grand prize of $50. Bring a toy suitable for an elementary school age child 3 to 12 years of age (minimum value $5 or more) and receive a free Bingo card with the purchase of the 3-card package. Toys benefit the Boosters' annual San Lorenzo Elementary Christmas Program providing holiday gifts for the students.

The Lodge remains available for private parties and gatherings. As the holiday season approaches, holiday gatherings must be scheduled to coordinate with regular weekly and monthly meetings at the Lodge. To reserve the Lodge for your party or event, call Kathleen at 575-654-6286. Note: this is a new contact name and number as of October 1st.

Teen Ink By Ajalaa Claussen

Recently, my mom threw away my Vans; she said they made me look homeless. It was true. They did. I had worn them for so long that I ripped the sides and tore through the sole. Still, I wasn't ready to let them go.

Reluctantly, I got new shoes. My friends tried to persuade me to try something new, but I always pick the same thing: floral Vans. I love these shoes; they make me happy. Every time that my head hangs low, I see my shoes and I perk back up again.

We've had a long trek together, my shoes and I. They balanced me when everything else was shifting. These shoes walked with me every step of the way as I navigated through numerous hardships. After these rough journeys together, these floral shoes became more than just a habitual purchase. They became a reminder to consistently be myself, even as everything else changes. Maybe, if you walked a mile in my floral Vans, you would understand.

Word Search - Find the Spanish Words

Did you know that Mogollon is a Spanish word? The Mogollon Mountains were named for Juan Ignacio Flores Mogollon, a governor of New Mexico in the 1700s. Spanish conquistadors first came to the southwest in the 1500s, bringing with them the first horses and other livestock, and a written language. Many Spanish words are still used by all of us today. Archaeologists also use Spanish words for some artifacts and sites. Mimbres is a Spanish word for a kind of small willow tree. Archaeologists named the people who lived in southwest N.M. the Mimbres people because many ancient villages were found along the Rio Mimbres. The Mimbres people are a branch of the Mogollon Culture, the name given to the prehistoric cultural area of southern N. M., eastern Arizona, and northern Mexico.

Find these Spanish Words in the word search challenge:

BREAKING NEWS!

The NM Transportation Commission approved the Grant County Commission's revised request to allow recreational off-highway vehicles (ROV's) to be driven on Highway 15 between Pinos Altos and highway 35 and on highway 35 between highway 15 and McKnight Road, plus several highway sections near Cliff/Gila, which will become effective once signs are posted (anticipated to be within a month or two).

More about this next month.

We would like to thank everyone who submitted photographs to the 2019 Mimbres Valley Harvest Festival Calendar. We had a great response from many very talented Mimbres photographers.

Last year we had an abundance of rainbow and hummingbird pictures. As you will see this year, everyone submitted animal and flower pictures!

If you missed buying your calendar at this year's Harvest Festival, then don't hesitate to contact MVHAL or the Mimbres Messenger, and we will be happy to see about getting you a calendar.

All proceeds go to help support the MVHAL projects.
